

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: June 2026

VolleyHeat ("the App") respects your privacy and is designed to collect as little information as possible.

Information We Collect

VolleyHeat stores volleyball-related information that you create within the App, including:

- Match data
- Team names
- Player names
- Statistics and analytics generated from match data

This information is stored locally on your device.

Data Storage

VolleyHeat currently stores all user data locally on your device. The App does not require an account and does not transmit your match data to our servers.

Future versions of the App may offer optional cloud backup and synchronization features. If such features are introduced, this Privacy Policy will be updated accordingly.

Data Sharing

VolleyHeat does not share, sell, rent, or transmit your data to third parties.

Premium users may choose to export match data as JSON files. Any exported data is shared only when you explicitly choose to export or share it.

Analytics and Tracking

VolleyHeat does not collect analytics, usage statistics, advertising identifiers, or tracking information.

Location Information

VolleyHeat does not collect or access your location.

Children's Privacy

VolleyHeat does not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Any changes will be reflected in an updated version published with the App.
